

Chief Judge Robert S. Lasnik

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

SCOTT J. CLANCY,

Defendant.

NO. CR02-46RSL

GOVERNMENT'S SENTENCE
MEMORANDUM, RE:
SUPERVISED RELEASE VIOLATION

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through John McKay, United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington, and Janet Freeman, Assistant United States Attorney for said District, and submits the Government's Sentence Memorandum, Re: Supervised Release Violation in the above-captioned matter.

The United States concurs with the Probation Officer's calculation of the advisory Guidelines range of eight to fourteen months. We also concur with the recommendation of four months' incarceration, followed by 56 months of supervised release, to include the 13 special conditions of supervision.

The defendant's criminal history dates back to 1984. Since then, he has engaged in fraudulent conduct on several occasions. His pattern of fraud and thefts, despite treatment and constant supervision, cannot be ignored. Unfortunately, it appears that the defendant's fraudulent actions will continue unless he chooses to make a drastic change in his treatment. Until then, a meaningful, yet reasonable, period of

1 incarceration is necessary as a method of deterrence and to ensure the protection of the 2 community.

3 Dated this 10th day of October, 2006.

4 Respectfully submitted,

5 JOHN McKAY
6 United States Attorney
